

Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea

Teacher Key

1. Why was the professor planning to go to the depths of the ocean? (chase sea monster)
2. Tell one of the two things he thought it could be? (One underwater machine, enormous whale)
3. Where did the crew of the Abraham Lincoln plan to meet the sea creature? (Between Japan and US)
4. How did the crew of the Abraham Lincoln try to bait the sea creature? (Bacon slabs)
5. What did the creature look like when it was first sighted? (Brilliant light)
6. How big is the sea creature estimated to be in length? (250 feet)
7. How did the crew first plan to catch the sea creature? (Chase it and harpoon, then shoot at it)
8. Why didn't the cannon shots work on the sea creature? (Just bounced off)
9. Why did Ned and the author tumble into the ocean? (Harpooned the sea creature)
10. What was the floating island that rescued the professor, Conseil, and the harpooner? (submarine)
11. What did the AN engraved on the plate, fork, spoon, and knife stand for? (Nautilus)
12. Who is this strange Captain that they must obey? (Captain Nemo)
13. Where were the forests of the island of Crespo? (ocean floor)
14. How was the Nautilus powered? (electricity)
15. Why did Captain Nemo motion to lay flat on the sandy bottom of the ocean? (2 sharks)
16. Why did Captain Nemo allow the three guests to go ashore? (Nautilus went aground on coral reef)
17. Why were the three (Ned, the harpooner, and the professor) running for their lives off the island? (Savages)
18. What were the logs that were drifting toward the Nautilus? (Savages canoes)
19. What happened when the natives tried to attack the Nautilus? (Electric shocks)
20. Why did Captain Nemo call the Professor when he was told to stay in his room? (Man dying)
21. What were the three guest after off the island of Ceylon? (pearls)
22. According to this book, who discovered the South Pole on Antarctica? (Captain Nemo)
23. How did the crew of the Nautilus get out from under the ice in Antarctica? (Dug a hole)
24. Who were the seven monsters that had attached to the Nautilus? (Octopi)
25. How did the three guests finally escape the Nautilus? (sucked up by a whirlpool)

Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea Student Study Guide

1. Why was the professor planning to go to the depths of the ocean?
2. Tell one of the two things he thought it could be?
3. Where did the crew of the Abraham Lincoln plan to meet the sea creature?
4. How did the crew of the Abraham Lincoln try to bait the sea creature?
5. What did the creature look like when it was first sighted?
6. How big is the sea creature estimated to be in length?
7. How did the crew first plan to catch the sea creature?
8. Why didn't the cannon shots work on the sea creature?
9. Why did Ned and the author tumble into the ocean?
10. What was the floating island that rescued the professor, Conseil, and Ned?
11. What did the AN engraved on the plate, fork, spoon, and knife stand for?
12. Who is this strange Captain that they must obey?
13. Where were the forests of the island of Crespo?
14. How was the Nautilus powered?
15. Why did Captain Nemo motion to lay flat on the sandy bottom of the ocean?
16. Why did Captain Nemo allow the three guests to go ashore?
17. Why were the three (Ned, Conseil, and the professor) running for their lives off the island?
18. What were the logs that were drifting toward the Nautilus?
19. What happened when the natives tried to attack the Nautilus?
20. Why did Captain Nemo call the Professor when he was told to stay in his room?
21. What were the three guests after off the island of Ceylon?
22. According to this book, who discovered the South Pole on Antarctica?
23. How did the crew of the Nautilus get out from under the ice in Antarctica?
24. Who were the seven monsters that had attached to the Nautilus?
25. How did the three guests finally escape the Nautilus?